Managing your profile

Researchers can customize their profiles by...

1. Adding publications and awards
2. Adding a statement of research, appearing on the profile
3. Modifying research terms and domains (fingerprint)
Help us refine your profile

SciVal Experts automatically builds robust expertise profiles using a multi-step process. However, with your input they can be further improved.

To remove a publication incorrectly attributed to you:
Write to help@experts.umn.edu.

To change your preferred name, or contact information:
Go the University of Minnesota’s Human Resources Self-Service Action page: http://hrss.umn.edu/. Click on "Personal Information Update" to change the following fields:
- Preferred first name
- Preferred last name
- Preferred middle initial
- Preferred suffix
- Highest education level

To change your department or college affiliation:
You will need to contact your department or college human resources officer. If you are unsure who to contact, the central Office of Human Resources can direct you to the appropriate person:
- Web: http://www1.umn.edu/oir/
- Phone: 612-625-2016
- Email: ohr@umn.edu

To add information to your profile, go to Profile Enhancer tool:
- Add a link to your full CV.
- Add a link to your homepage.
- Add a personal statement of research interests.

To opt out of "Experts@Minnesota":
- Please write to: help@experts.umn.edu
