Jayne A Fulkerson, PhD, Center Director (Associate Professor)
Family-based health promotion in community settings; child and adolescent obesity prevention, particularly through the home food environment and family meals; research methodology; evaluation; measurement; and instrument development
Phone: (612) 624-4823
Email: fulke001@umn.edu

Jehad Adwan, RN, PhD (Clinical Assistant Professor)
Grief among pediatric nurses, diabetes management in children.
Phone: 612-625-0430
Email: adwan001@umn.edu

Melissa Avery, PhD, RN, CNM (Associate Professor)
Exercise in pregnancy; exercise and gestational diabetes; outcomes of nurse-midwifery care; perineal massage; breastfeeding; technology enhanced learning
Phone: 612-624-5933
Email: avery003@umn.edu

Linda H. Bearinger, PhD, RN, FAAN (Professor)
Health promotion and youth development with vulnerable adolescent populations, prevention of risky behavior, particularly around sexual health and violence involvement, health care services for adolescents and the competencies of health providers
Phone: 612-624-5157
Email: beari001@umn.edu

Mary Benbenek, MS, RN, FNP, PNP (Clinical Associate Professor)
Immigrant health, adolescent health, bone health.
Phone: 612-626-5236
Email: benbe001@umn.edu

Mary Chesney, PhD, RN, CNP (Clinical Assistant Professor)
Family adjustment after international adoption; parent-child attachment/relationship; neurobiological, cognitive, social, and emotional effects of early childhood deprivation (hospitalization or orphanage care)
Phone: 612-625-1601
Email: chesn009@umn.edu

Laura Duckett, PhD, MPH, RN (Associate Professor)
Breastfeeding and mother’s milk feeding for full-term and premature infants; breastfeeding and maternal employment; maternal, infant and family health during the first postpartum year; complementary healing practices for premature infants; theory of planned behavior and health promotion.
Phone: 612-624-9160
Email: ducke001@umn.edu
Carolyn Porta, PhD, MPH RN (Assistant Professor)
Latino adolescent mental health, stress and coping, access to care, effect of uninsurance, longitudinal prevention interventions, mixed methods, community-based participatory methods
Phone: 612-624-6179
Email: garcia@umn.edu

Ann Garwick, PhD, RN, LP, LMFT, FAAN (Professor)
Children with special health care needs; cross-cultural health and culturally competent care; family health and caregiving; asthma management; family stress and coping.
Phone: (612) 624-1141
Email: garwi001@umn.edu

Linda L. Halcón, PhD, MPH, RN (Associate Professor)
Complementary/botanical therapies and infections diseases; stress and coping interventions for refugees; health promotion and disease prevention through lifestyle changes
Phone: 612-626-6450
Email: halco001@umn.edu

Susan J. Henly, PhD, RN (Professor)
Psychometric methods for health sciences research; longitudinal models and health trajectories; multilevel models and quality of care
Phone: 612-624-0431
Email: henly003@umn.edu

Casey Hooke, PhD, RN, PCNS, CPON (Assistant Professor)
Children and adolescents with cancer: Symptom management, fatigue and related symptoms, physical performance, growth and development
Phone: 612-624-2972
Email: hook0035@umn.edu

Melissa Horning, PhD, RN, PHN (Assistant Professor)
Phone: 612-624-1947
Email: horn0199@umn.edu

Madeleine Kerr, PhD, RN (Associate Professor)
Intervention-effectiveness research; preventing occupational hearing loss
Phone: 612-625-2669
Email: kerrx010@umn.edu
Linda Olson Keller, MS, APRN, BC (Clinical Associate Professor)
Public health nursing policy and partnerships
Phone: 651-249-4452
Email: olson173@umn.edu

Marti Kubik, PhD, RN, RNC (Associate Professor)
School and community-based intervention research; adolescent health behaviors: physical activity and dietary practices; childhood obesity prevention; population-based health care
Phone: 612-625-0606
Email: kubik002@umn.edu

Linda L. Lindeke, PhD, RN, CNP, FAAN (Associate Professor)
High-risk infants: school-age outcomes of adverse events; advance practice nurse roles, strategies and policies; children’s perceptions of their healthcare experiences
Phone: 612-626-1133
Email: linde001@umn.edu

Wendy Looman, PhD, RN, CNP (Associate Professor)
Social capital and family health; quality of life among children with neurodevelopmental conditions; children and youth with special health care needs
Phone: 612-624-6604
Email: looma003@umn.edu

Lisa Martin, PhD, MS, RN, PHN (Clinical Assistant Professor)
Diabetes prevention in American Indian adolescents, American Indian health care and research, nursing workforce diversity, community-based participatory research, qualitative research methods
Phone: 612-625-4593 or 612-227-4709
Email: mart0182@umn.edu

Anne McKechnie, PhD, RN, IBCLC (Assistant Professor)
Understanding the needs of families who continue pregnancies after fetal diagnoses, developing and testing family-centered interventions to enhance strengths and reduce risks for parents and their children with special health care needs
Phone: 612-624-6491
Email: acmckech@umn.edu

Barbara McMorris, PhD (Associate Professor)
Youth violence and risk prevention, community-based intervention projects
Phone: 612-624-9909
Email: mcmo0023@umn.edu
Karen Monsen, PhD, RN  (Assistant Professor)
Intervention effectiveness research, disseminating effective interventions, Omaha System psychometrics and applications; data mining and machine learning methods
Phone:  612-624-0490
Email: mons0122@umn.edu

Susan O’Conner-Von, PhD, RNC (Associate Professor)
Pediatric pain and palliative care; preparation for surgery: non-pharmacologic interventions for pain management; web-based education for adolescents with cancer
Phone: 612-624-6647
Email: ocon0025@umn.edu

Barbara Peterson, PhD, RN, CNS (Clinical Assistant Professor)
Child and adolescent mental health
Phone: 612-624-5412
Email: rober007@umn.edu

Cheryl Robertson, PhD, MPH, RN (Associate Professor)
Refugee health; war trauma and torture; strength-based interventions; global public health
Phone: 612-624-5412
Email: rober007@umn.edu

Mary Rowan, PhD, RN, CNM  (Clinical Professor)
Ethics; technology-enhanced education
Phone: 612-624-8937
Email: rowan005@umn.edu

Melissa Saftner, PhD, CNM, RN (Clinical Associate Professor - Duluth)
Adolescent sexual risk behavior, health promotion in adolescent populations, American Indian Health, Improving access to nurse-midwives
Phone: 218-726-8934
Email: sievi001@umn.edu

Renee Sieving, PhD, MSN, RNC  (Associate Professor)
Youth-health promotion; prevention of adolescent’s multiple health risk behaviors (sexual risks, violence involvement, school drop-out)
Phone: 612-626-4527
Email: sievi001@umn.edu