

Second International Conference on Research Methods for Standardized Terminologies

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

School of Nursing

Wednesday, April 15, 2015 | Dakota County Northern Service Center | West St. Paul, MN

7:30 - 8:00	Registration
8:00 - 8:30	Welcome and Introductory Remarks..... Dean Connie White Delaney , PhD, RN, FAAN, FACMI, Karen S. Martin , RN, MSN, FAAN, & Sadie Swenson , BSN, PHN, PhD student
8:30 - 9:45	Keynote - Advancing Patient Centered Outcomes Research: Implications for Research Methods and Standard Terminology..... Robin Newhouse , PhD, RN, NEA-BC, FAAN
9:45 - 10:45	Data Mining for Translation to Practice..... Chih-Lin Chi , PhD, MBA
10:45 - 11:00	Break
11:00 - 12:00	Capturing complexity: Use of TimeCAT & the Omaha System to Study Multi-tasking Activities of Acute Care Nurses..... Elizabeth Schenk , PhD, MHI, BSN & Ruth Schleyer , MSN, RN-BC
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch & Networking
1:00 - 1:30	Evaluating Quality of Research Methods for Standardized Terminologies..... Selda Secginli , PhD, RN
1:30 - 2:30	Planning Your Evaluation Strategies for Projects in Research, Education, and Practice..... Kristin Erickson , MS, APHN-BC, RN & Ngozi Mbibi , DNP, RNC-OB
2:30 - 3:00	Break
3:00 - 4:30	Integral Informatics: Aligning Perspectives, Methods, and Data..... Daniel Pesut , PhD, RN, PMHCNS-BC, FAAN
4:30	Adjourn - Networking and Evaluation (Online evaluation can be completed on your own time)

*Times, Presenters, and Presentations are subject to change.

Overall Conference Objectives:

Upon completion of this learning activity, the learner will be able to:

1. Discuss patient-centered outcomes research and implications for standardized terminologies.
2. Describe use of data mining techniques for translational research.
3. Identify methods for capturing complexity using observational tools and standardized terminologies.
4. Explain quality and alignment of perspectives for methods used with standardized terminologies.

Successful Completion by Participants:

For successful completion, learners must:

- Complete check-in at registration
- Actively engage in activity content.
- Attend full sessions.
- Complete the Verification of Participation Worksheet for contact hours.
- Complete the online evaluation.
