Reflections on the Julia Berg Story

Given your personal and or professional perspective, reflect, and answer the following questions:

1. What did you appreciate about this story?

2. How did watching this interview influence your thinking and or feeling?

3. What commitment to action will you make as result of the learning derived from this story?